

"Supporters of this legislation would have you believe that the Estate Tax Repeal Act benefits a

Yet less than 2% of all Americans have estates large enough to even pay an estate tax

Family farmers and small business owners deserve tax relief. That is why I have supp

A permanent repeal of the estate tax will lead to two things:
a permanent Republican raid on the trust funds that keep Social Security and Medica

Instead of taking up a common sense bill that would get rid of the estate tax for almos

Furthermore, the vast majority of this $750 billion giveaway will go to fewer than 31,0

The Republican leadership would give this multibillion dollar tax cut:

before balancing the federal budget before providing the funding needed to fight the war on terrorism before extending Social Security so that our generation and our children=s generation before establishing a prescription drug benefit in Medicare for 13 million American se before limiting class size for more than 3 million children, and before raising the minimum wage for millions of Americans working full time for less t

Vote against this give away to the very rich."

###